5. Financial statement for the year 2021

Gautam Sharma presented the financial statement for the year 2021. Great job done by Team as there were no major events or activities carried out due to COVID-19. Suresh Dandapani suggested including Badminton and Tennis as a part of sports events to generate revenue. This will help to engage families and kids with the organization.

Leela Sharma suggested to carry out the donation event with CFCR with the help of seniors to generate funds for annual CFCR payment.

Gautam Sharma moved the motion for approval and Subash Biswal seconded the approval. All in favour.

6. Executive committee's report

Barada Shankar Mohanty gave update of all events organized during the year. These events included India Day-2021, Virtual Folk fest 2021, Gandhi Jayanti the much awaited India Night 2022. All events were very subdued except India Night due to COVID-19 restrictions.

India Day was celebrated at GITA Bhavan in collaboration with HSS and ISA.

Folkfest was held virtually, and India pavilion participated through various pre recorded dance and music videos. We also had food sale through our partners Restaurant Kashmere and Biryani Box. Ritu Patel and Shakthi Mahendran had a great opportunity to be folk fest hosts on Aug 21st, 2021. Gandhi Jayanti function was celebrated with essay and drawing competition and many young children participated in the event.

Safal Suryavanshi gave updates about the India Night financials and operations. It was first event that happened after COVID restrictions were lifted and we saw a huge number of people came to attend the event.

Sunil Khandade gave updates about the ICCA website. The work is in progress to ensure donation receipts and memberships receipts were auto generated to be sent at the time of payment.

Laxmi Patel talked about community engagement. Many ideas like newcomer engagement through providing help with settlement, vehicle rides, grocery shopping etc. were discussed.

Leela Sharma suggested to reach to global gathering and get involved with newcomers in community.

Presidents report was accepted as presented.
